

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—The Midway Christian Sunday School has 157 pupils, says the Clipper.

—Elder Gowen, of Lancaster, began a meeting at the Hustonville Christian church, Sunday.

—The Providence church has fired Prof. J. B. Jones from its pastorate for the part he took in the Breckinridge canvass. Good.

—Sam Jones has become one of the editors of "The Tennessee Methodist," heretofore edited by Rev. B. F. Payne, at Nashville.

—Rev. J. W. Tyler, of Georgetown, preached at the Presbyterian church here Sunday. The pastor, Rev. S. M. Logan, is holding a meeting for him.

—Frankfort is experiencing that moral apathy that usually follows a religious wave. The meat shops, cigar, drug and confectionery stores are to shut up Sundays hereafter.

—Missouri Presbyterians have adopted resolutions condemning any political party that stands committed to the license policy or refuses to put itself on record against the saloon.

—Eld. W. E. Crabtree, of Lexington, arrived yesterday and last night began a meeting at the Christian church. The hours at which services will be held are 10 A. M. and 7 P. M.

—Bro. J. G. Livingston closed his meetings at the Academy last night. There had been five additions. The house had been crowded nearly every night and some grand sermons were delivered, and much and lasting good has been done. —Corbin Enterprise.

—The most interesting revival held at LaGrange for several years is in progress at the Baptist church, conducted by the Rev. J. W. Porter, of Galloway, Tenn. Fifty additions have been made to the church, comprising some of the most prominent men of the town.

—Rev. Sam Bettis, cowboy evangelist, thus sums up the results of his recent revival at Bay City Mich.: "I had over 3,000 conversions, 1,250 old topers signed the pledge, $362 was raised for expenses, $500 clear for Sam, and 6,000 people were fed free meals." He is satisfied.

—The meeting at the Baptist church has been a success from the beginning. About fifteen additions up to the present and probably will continue all week, though Rev. Boram will leave Thursday night, but not without the praise of the good people of Somerset. —Reporter.

—We were prevented from accepting a cordial invitation to the county meeting at Rush Branch Saturday, but we learn that the large crowd that gathered were not only regaled with a feast of reason, but with a dinner, which seemed to fill the whole country round-about, and which was dispensed with a hospitality such as the good people are noted for.

—According to the census statistics of 1890, as given in a bulletin just issued, 95 per cent. of the farms in Kentucky are owned by the persons who cultivate them, and of these 95 per cent. are free of incumbrance. The debt on farms is $5,336,854, or 40 per cent. of their value, with interest at 6.68 per cent. Of the houses, 32 per cent. are owned and of these 93 per cent. are free of incumbrance. The debt on houses is $3,034,684 with interest at 6.74 per cent.

—The report that the Emperor of China had manifested his displeasure with Viceroy Li Hung Chang by stripping him of his three-eyed peacock feather and his yellow riding jacket has been confirmed by the publication of the Imperial decree pronouncing doom upon the hapless High Commissioner.

—John Legan, of Xenia, O., who has just died, had a peculiar peculiarity. He would allow no living thing on his place but himself and went so far as to poison the birds that came to his trees.

—John Evans, of Leipsic, O., only 14 years old, has stolen in his short life a round dozen horses. He is now serving a short sentence on a Reform Farm near the scene of his last theft.

—In West Virginia 2,000 oil wells are in operation, and it has been estimated that the output for the present year will be fully 10,000,000 barrels, worth $8,000,000.

—The Colorado Woman's democratic Club is the first woman's club to be placed on the roll of the National Association of democratic Clubs.

Good Reading for Sore Democrats.

(To the Editor of the Interior Journal.)

MCKINNEY, Oct. 22.—Although I have demonstrated it but little, I have all my life felt quite an interest in county, State and National politics. I obtained my majority just after the close of the great bloody conflict between the States and when for the first time I was about to exercise the greatest prerogative of an American citizen I approached the ballot box with no little consideration. Having been a Union soldier, I had naturally imbibed an inspiration favorable to the North, or rather to the party then in power, so to disregard this early intuition and to ally myself with an opposite party was, I assure you, only after careful and due deliberation. Suffice it to say that I did after much anxiety and a careful consideration of the then bad state of affairs in 1868 cast my first vote for the democratic nominee for President of the United States, and while I have never taken an active part in even in local politics, I have found much pleasure along with the rank and file of the democratic party in the exercise of suffrage.

I believe that every man should have earnest, honest political convictions. The affairs of administration demand it, both county, State and National. I am a democrat because I believe the democratic party represents principles that are for the best interests of the American people; then as a democrat I ask what is my duty when I go the polls to say by my vote which party I shall support? Shall I stop to ask just exactly who are the nominees of my party? Are they all men that I admire personally? Have I ever had a little difference with any of them in a business transaction? Have any of them ever voted in some local issue that I imagined was antagonistic to my business interests, or shall I from any imaginary cause of a personal nature refuse to cheerfully support all or any part of the regular nominees of the party whose principles I advocate and wish to perpetuate?

Some democrats try to get around this by saying "Oh, well there is no politics in county races any way." I want to ask how many republicans were ever heard to talk that way? Republicans as a rule are true to their party leaders, and this I admire above all things in any party. I would not belong to or claim to belong to any party whose nominees I would not cheerfully support under any reasonable circumstances. We must keep in tact county organization as well as State and National, if we hope to have any party at all. This is too patent to admit of argument.

The democratic nominees in Lincoln county at present are objectionable to no democrats so far as I have heard except for imaginary grievances arising from a personal or business standpoint, and as such grievances are no grievances at all from a democratic standpoint. I am glad to say that in this part of the county at least they are rapidly disappearing. I heard a prominent republican say yesterday that the democrats of Lincoln county had never presented a cleaner and more capable set of nominees than at present and that they would be hard to beat.

The republicans of Lincoln county well know that they have no earthly show to elect a single man, except by making inroads on the democratic party, and as the democrats are not so easily "gulled" as some of the republicans imagine, they will wake up on the morning of the 7th of November and wonder "where are we at?" DEMOCRAT.

An exchange says that a woman's character has been likened to a postage stamp—one black mark ruins it. Man's like a treasury note—no matter how many stains it passes at par. When a woman falls from grace her character is usually ruined forever, while on the other hand a man may straighten up and be received into the best of society again. Why is it thus?

In the present rage of women for "manish" clothes it would be well to remember the admonition of the sacred book, which may be found in the fifth verse of the 22d chapter of Deuteronomy, as follows: "The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto a man, neither shall a man put on a woman's garment, for all that do are an abomination unto thy Lord thy God."—Capital.

A Quarter Century Test.

For a quarter of a century Dr. King's New Discovery has been tested and the millions who have received benefit from its use testify to its wonderful curative powers in all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs. A remedy that has stood the test so long and that has given so universal satisfaction is no experiment. Each bottle is positively guaranteed to give relief or the money will be refunded. It is admitted to be the most reliable for Coughs and Colds. Trial bottles free at A. R. Penny's drug store. Large size 50c. and $1.

It May Do As Much for You

Mr. Fred Miller of Irving, Ill., writes that he had a Severe Kidney trouble for many years, with severe pains in his back and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so called Kidney cures but without any good result. About a year ago he began use of Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to cure of all Kidney and Liver troubles and often gives almost instant relief. One trial will prove our statement. Price only 50c. for large bottles. At A. R. Penny's Drug Store.

"I would rather trust that medicine than any doctor I know of," says Mrs. Hattie M. n. of Chilton, Carter Co., Mo., in speaking of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Dr. S. G. Hocker, druggist, Stanford.

We take pleasure in introducing to the voters of Lincoln county, Mr. James F. Cummins, republican nominee for county clerk. As the picture, which appears herewith, and which was procured at enormous expense, indicates, Mr. Cummins is very handsome and somewhat of a dandy, though far from being a lah-de-dah young man. He is strictly business, snave and polite, and is withal so clever that we would not say anything against him, if we had anything against him to say. The fact is Mr. Cummins is too nice a man for the company he keeps and like poor dog Tray, he is going to get hurt for it. Of course he stands no chance to be county clerk, even if he were running against a less popular and competent man than Thompson Cooper, but he will show in his bouts around the county that a man can be a republican and a gentleman at the same time.

Of the republican candidate for sheriff, John H. Harman, we shall have little to say, except that so far as we can learn he is a pretty clever fellow. Not to know the gentleman may be to argue ourselves unknown, but we have to plead guilty to that impeachment. He is said to be a typical sheriff in physical proportions, but if he has peculiar fitness for the office, it will never be recognized in this good old democratic county. Tom Newland is as sure to be elected as the day arrives. He never has been beaten and it was not intended from the beginning that Harman should do it. His locality was all that ever suggested his nomination to the boss, who wanted to have each part of the county and interest represented in his patch-work ticket.

—McCreary, Montgomery and Berry are the only members of the Kentucky delegation of 10 democrats in the present House to be returned to the next. Stone, Caruth and Breckinridge were defeated in the primaries; Ellis, Goodnight and Paynter did not offer, and Lisle died in the harness. Silas Adams, the silent and solitary republican, is a faction's nominee for re-election, and will probably be succeeded in the 54th Congress by George E. Stone, a democrat. It will be the worst shaking up a Kentucky delegation ever received. —Lou. Times.

—The wife murderer Dooley, who was hung at Fort Madison, Ia., Friday, was a cool kind of a cuss. When asked if he had anything to say, he answered the sheriff, "Yes, you have violated the law. The law allows but 17 persons to witness an execution, and there are 25 present now and more coming. If a poor man violates the law he suffers the penalty; a rich man can do the same and he goes free. I hope God will forgive your sins."

—A daring hold-up of a Texas and Pacific passenger train took place near Gordon, Tex. Four unmasked men stopped the train and sent a section foreman into the express car to open a safe known to contain $30,000 in cash. Failing to get at this, the bandits secured the contents of the messenger's way safe, containing between $500 and $5,000, and then walked away into the mountains, whistling.

—A crank who had written several threatening letters to the bank officials called at the Clinton Bank in New York and demanded $1,000 of the paying teller. As the teller turned away, the crank shot at him, barely missing his head. The crank was overpowered and placed in custody.

—There was a decrease in the manufactured product of the Pullman Palace Car Co. for the year, but it was able to declare the usual dividend from the earnings of cars in operation. The daily average of wages has been increased from $2.03 last April to $2.16 in September.

—The Roanoke Rapid Power Company, composed of Northern and Southern capitalists, with a paid-up capital $2,000,000, has purchased 3,000 acres of cotton-growing land at Roanoke Rapids, N. C., and has commenced the erection of a 24 set knitting factory and a 20,000 spindle cotton mill, which will give employment to 11,000 persons.

—Riley Grannan, the greatest plunger of the year, has presented to his poor and aged parents the old homestead which they were compelled to give up years ago. The place is in Paris and Mr. Grannan paid $8,100 for it.

—Owing to some trouble about Hill's name being placed on the independent ticket Nathan Straus withdrew and Hugh J. Grant was nominated by Tammany for mayor of New York. He has accepted the nomination.

—Under the new law William Waldor, Astor will pay the most income tax $178,000 and John D. Rockefeller comes next with $152,225. Mrs. Hattie Green will pay $40,000 and Mrs. Eliot F. Shepard $20,000.

Every mother should know that cramp can be prevented. The first symptoms of true cramp is soreness. This is followed by a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given freely as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even after the cough has developed it will prevent the attack.

OF A LOCAL NATURE.

—R. S. Nichols has sold his handsome residence on Harrodsburg Avenue to J. T. Lapsley, of this city, for $7,900. Dr. Lapsley sold the house he now lives in, on the corner of Harrodsburg and Walnut streets, the vacant lot between that and the residence of W. P. Price, and the cottage just back of his residence going toward the depot, to Samuel Harding for $5,200 for the three pieces of property. —Danville Advocate.

—Last Monday, Thomas R. Phelps resigned as master commissioner, and Judge John W. Hughes was appointed in his place. The office pays about $1,200 per year. Mr. Phelps made an excellent officer, and Judge Hughes will fill the place with equal credit. —Harrodsburg Democrat.

—Col. John K. Faulkner, ex-collector of customs of Louisville, now located at Richmond, while attempting to re-board the Southern train from Louisville at Lawrenceburg, lost his footing and fell to the side of the track, sustaining very painful but not serious injuries.

—There's nothing much in a name. The colored republicans in the 11th congressional district will vote for White with as much gusto as the white democrats would have voted for Black had he not found a Stone in his congressional path. —Owensboro Messenger.

—The fiscal year ending June 30, 1894, was the last under the McKinley act, designed to dissipate the surplus and check imports. The deficit for that year is definitely stated at $69,803,260. Do you want any more McKinley bill? If not vote for McCreary.

—The Bank of Monticello is the name of the institution just organized in Wayne county. Judge Joe Bertram is president and W. L. Baker cashier. It will begin business Jan. 1st with a capital of $20,000.

—The Somerset Reporter says that some scoundrels cut the ham strings of 10 steers belonging to Albert Hollers, of Wayne county. Several died and the others will likely do so.

—DeLong, Howard & Co., who are building the Danville water works have been awarded the contract to build a similar plant at Grenada, Miss.

—Harrodsburg won the foot ball game Friday from the Centre College second team, by a score of 8 to 4.

—Four deaths have occurred in Ripleyville, Anderson county, from whooping cough in the last ten days.

—The Somerset Reporter says that a little child of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Gillispie died last week.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—G. W. Wilcher, 22, and Miss Mary E. Leefer, just 16, were married near Ottenheim Saturday.

—Some people are entirely too sensitive. A German, who had buried his fourth wife, went and killed himself when he asked the fifth woman to have him, and she told him he was too old to marry.

—Wm. Hilton, of Bullitt, and Miss Nannie Chiles, of Louisville, were married at the bedside of the dying mother in Mercer, at her request as she was anxious to see the ceremony. The nuptials occurred at noon Friday and the death at 5 the same afternoon.

—Invitations to the marriage of Miss Mattie Thompson, daughter of ex-Congressman Phil B. Thompson, Jr., to Mr. W. L. Davis, are being sent out. The event will occur at Secretary Carlisle's in Washington, Oct. 31. Miss Thompson has just returned from Europe.

—The Virginia Jockey Club has just inaugurated a six weeks' race meeting at the new St. Asaph track, about five miles from Washington, on the Virginia side of the Potomac. Nearly all the big stables are represented. The club has spent $75,000 on the track and buildings and the grand stand, one of the handsomest in the country, will seat 2,800 people. There are 572 stables on the grounds.

—The wonderful yield of 13 pumpkins, aggregating 378 pounds in weight, were gathered by Mr. Frank Grow a few days ago from one vine on his farm in the Jessamine neighborhood. The plant was not cultivated, but grew in the edge of an old straw rick, the vine spreading over the rick. —Jessamine Journal.

—During the first five months of 1894 the United States shipped to Great Britain 166,000 live cattle and 750,000 cwt. of dressed beef, a large increase over the same period of 1893. The value was $22,500,000. The sheep exportation for the same time was valued at $600,000.

—Lawrence Tandy, of Louisville, a cigarette dude who is attending the Kentucky University, attempted to kill himself because he didn't have the money to buy the poisonous little things with, but unfortunately he did not succeed.

—Lookout Inn, on Lookout Mountain, at Chattanooga, is to go into the hands of a receiver. It will not be closed as a consequence, however, but will run through the entire winter.

—Five negroes are reported to have been lynched for the foul murder and robbery of Robert Copes, treasurer of Orangeburg county, South Carolina.

Gov. McKinley had to stay in Ohio to keep his militia from killing all the white people who wanted to kill a negro for committing a rape on a white woman, so he did not appear in Louisville as advertised. He also had to cancel his engagement at Nashville, but went through on a special train to New Orleans to console with the sugar makers over the stoppage of the steal in the shape of a bounty that the democrats had effected. Fortunately a large majority of the democrats in Louisiana are not sugar makers and are democrats from principle, so the high priest of protection will likely have his labor for his pains. En route South the "guy" was importuned for a speech at Lexington and he made a short one appealing to the voters to elect Denny to Congress and further the cause of protection. There is a great deal at stake for McKinley in the present campaign. If his theory carries and the next House of Congress is republican, he will be the party's logical candidate for president; otherwise not, very decidedly.

Ohio upheld the majesty of its law, but at a fearful cost. The troops were called out to protect the negro rapist from a mob, at Washington C. H., and when it attempted to take him whether or no, the volley of musketry played havoc in the ranks. Four were killed, two more will die and 15 or 20 were wounded. The negro was then disguised as a soldier and spirited off to the penitentiary where he was safely landed. The people raged over the act of the military, but the officers were sworn to do their duty and were bound to protect their prisoner at any cost. It may be a heroic remedy, but virulent cases require such treatment. Kentucky officers might learn a profitable lesson from the Ohio incident.

ALWAYS in the lead with the latest and most improved machinery for the rapid execution of work on the great Courier-Journal, Mr. W. N. Haldeman, has replaced the old Mergenthaler linotypes with new ones faster and better than the old. This has been a bad year for newspapers, but the Courier-Journal has not felt the hard times, as this heavy outlay proves. Always improving our metropolitan daily has gone a-y out of sight from any paper in the South and is fully abreast with the most enterprising in the whole country.

HON. GEORGE E. STONE is now making the mountain counties of his district ring with his superlative and will hardly sleep till the day of election, which promises him so much. Judge R. J. Breckinridge spoke for him at Liberty yesterday and Judge M. C. Sanfley has promised to make two speeches in Wayne county, Senator Blackburn has also promised to make some speeches in the district. The signs of democratic success in the 11th increase as the days go by and the rads get further apart.

MR. RICHARD GODSON, the only rural rooster of the Kentucky press who ever went to Europe on his own hook, is back after a three months stay. He spent some time in and near London, where he has relatives, and made brief sojourns in France, Germany, Italy, Switzerland, Belgium and Holland. Dick's an old bachelor with an eye for beautiful and he candidly admitted that he saw more pretty women in Kentucky in a half day than he did all the time he was in foreign lands.

INSTEAD of filling the editorial columns of the Mt. Vernon Eagle with bright and crisp scintillations from his brain, Brer Smith gives advice to mothers and others about how to cure the croup and such things, of which a bachelor is as ignorant as a hog is of holiday. Get a move on yourself, old fellow, and wait till you get to be a mother, we should say father, before you essay to give advice of such character.

HON. ALBERT S. BERRY succeeded in downing all opposition and was nominated by acclamation to succeed himself in Congress. The convention, which was held at Walton, endorsed the administration of Mr. Cleveland and declared for John G. Carlisle, as the logical candidate for the presidency in 1896.

THERE never was such a thirst for office as now seems to animate the bosom of the average man. The other day the assistant sergeant-at-arms of the court of appeals died. The position is one of little honor and small emoluments, yet 25 men are now striving to get the appointment. Surely our people are office mad.

—Friend and foe will join in sorrow with Gov. Brown over the loss of his lovely young daughter, Miss Susan, who died Saturday, aged 22.

—Cassius M. Clay, Jr., is very ill at Ashland.

JUDGE JONES, of the Adair circuit court, granted Mr. Colson an injunction against the county clerks, restraining them from omitting Colson's name from the ballots, a rather irregular proceeding after Judge Sanfley had granted Col. Adams an injunction to restrain them from putting Colson's name on the ballots. The question will be settled before Judge Morrow on the 24th, Judge Sanfley having acted only because of the absence of Judge Morrow, and fixed a date for the hearing of the order. He has nothing further to do in the premises and if there is any contempt of the order it will be punished by Judge Morrow. Lawyers tell us that the injunction of Judge Sanfley, being the first, has the precedence and that Jones' order is void, else there would be no value in a restraining order, if judges of equal jurisdiction could set it aside without the facts being heard. Such proceeding would result in inextricable confusion and bring the law into contempt.

SOME fly up the creek scribbler at Danville telegraphs the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette that Dr. Roberts is likely to beat Gov. McCreary. Such an assertion is preposterous, but all the same it behooves democrats to be on the alert. The still hunt is a very low life way of hunting, but it sometimes bags the game.

—George Baker sold to John Moore a lot of brether stuff at 2c.

—M. D. Elmore sold to James Millburn a Jersey cow and calf for $40.

—The Jessamine Journal reports sales of 14 weanling mules at $23 to $30.

—John Murphy sold to Isaac Johnson, of Boyle, a lot of corn in the field at $2.

—The Jessamine County Fair Company will hold a two days' record meeting at Nicholasville, October 30-31.

—Wheat sold in New York, Oct. 15th, at 55 5-16 cents per bushel, the lowest price ever known in that market.

—Poor & Emory, of this county, have bought to date about 860 cattle for sloping at an average of 2 1/2c.—Lancaster Record.

—The foreign wheat crop is reported to the State Department at 1,430,410,000, which is 160,000,000 less than estimated consumption.

—K. L. Tanner bought of A. C. Dunn his farm of 146 acres situated near McKinney for $6,000.

—The colt Limonero, that won the Stallion Representative Stake at Lexington, was once owned by John Eagleman, formerly of this place.

—Sales of 225-pound hogs at 5c, 900-pound steers at 3 1/2c and 25 mixed mule colts at $19.30 are reported in the Harrodsburg Democrat.

—E. L. Davis sold recently to Mr. A. R. Pritchett, of Fayette county, 20 yearling cattle, averaging about 800 pounds at 3 cents.—Midway Clipper.

—E. B. & S. B. Muir large Jessamine county farmers have assigned with liabilities of $75,000. Bad Western investments caused the failure.

—Ralph Wilkes reduced his record from 2:08 1/2 to 2:06 1/2 in a race against time at Nashville. Hal Dillard 2:09 1/2, pacing, reduced his record to 2:04 1/2.

—Z. T. Chrisman, proprietor of the Jessamine stock farm of 486 acres and the owner of 75 horses, assigned Saturday, with liabilities of $50,000.

—James Goff sold last week to S. D. Goff 100 feeding cattle; 80 choice ones at 3 1/2c, and remainder ranging down to 3 1/4c.—Winchester Democrat.

—G. T. Lackey will ship to-day to Judge Sterling F. Grimes at Cuero, Texas, his nice little brown mare for which he gets $200. The freight is $41.50.

—James Bibb bought of Daniel Morgan 68 acres of land on the Hustonville pike, opposite Bailey Hill's, for $1,000. Mr. Bibb sold to Fred Bishop nine calves at $9.

—J. A. & S. T. Harris bought from various parties 50 1,200 pound feeders at 3 to 3 1/2c. They also sold to Monte Fox for Goldsmith 66 extra good 1,600 pound export cattle at 5c.

—The Stock Farm says that the once famous pacing stallion, Victor Mazzone, is almost "a wreck of his former self" and Mr. J. R. Farris thinks he will no be fit for a race this year.

—John Sandidge has recently sold his farm of 180 acres (the John Shelby place) lying near Shelby City, to Thomas McRoberts, of Danville, at $57.50 per acre.—Hustonville Cor. Danville Advocate.

—Thos. McClintock reports the sale of 12 aged mules to W. C. Wood, of Mississippi, at $100 per head; average weight 1,200 lbs. Mr. McClintock claims that sales are harder to make and prices lower than he ever knew them.—Carlisle Mercury.

—The judges decided that it was a dead heat between Robert J. and John R. Gentry at Nashville, but they came near being mobbed for it, as it is claimed that Gentry was fairly entitled to it. There was only one heat as Gentry got hurt and all bets were declared off.

—The Advocate reports a large crowd at Mt. Sterling, court day, and 3,000 cattle of good quality on the market. Cows and heifers sold from 2 to 2 1/2 cents; good feeders sold from 3 to 3 1/2 cents; light feeders, 2 1/2 to 3 cents. Aged mules sold from $50 to $85; mule colts from $35 to $55.

—Thomas Metcalf, Wilmore, sold this week to Woodcock & Johns, Danville, 28 head of thoroughbred cattle, average weight 1,200 pounds, at 3 1/2 cents. They were all dehorned, and are said to be as fine a lot of cattle as has been sold in Jessamine for a long time. Mr. Metcalf bought of J. A. Foster, a lot of 1,200 pound cattle at 3 1/2c.—Jessamine Journal.

—Thomas Ware is delivering to Farris & Whitley 400 barrels of corn sold during the summer at $1.60 at the heap. Farris & Whitley bought yesterday a bunch of 1,100-pound feeders at 3c, and a small bunch from Joe McDowell at the same price. Same firm bought 950 barrels of corn of various parties at $1.85 to $2 at the heap.

—The Directum-Alix race at Mystic Park, Boston, Saturday was a disappointment and a farce. Directum was out of shape and the game little mare had no trouble in winning the first heat in the slow time of 2:09. The second heat she came in in a walk with Directum four lengths behind in 2:14. The heretofore unbeaten Directum was then withdrawn and a veterinary took him in charge. The purse of $10,000 was then given Mr. Salisbury, who owns Alix' racing qualities.

Jim's Father Not a Fugitive.
 Mother—What strange boys was that you were playing with?
 Small Boy—Jim.
 "Jim who?"
 "I don't know."
 "Mercy! There's no telling who he is, and I don't want you to go with him again until I find out. Perhaps his father is a prize fighter."
 "Oh, no he isn't. Jim said his father was tongue-tied."—Good News.

A Prodigy.
 "Miss Sympherson has written a beautiful poem which is being copied in all the papers," remarked Miss Strange to Cosciusko Murphy.
 Cosciusko Murphy—The young lady seems to have talent.
 Miss Strange—I should say she had talent. She can compose music; she can talk French and Italian; she paints, and next month she is going to marry a man worth a quarter of a million. Talent is no name for it; she has positive genius.—Alex Sweet, in Texas Siftings.

The Use of "Professor."
 Winks—Who is this man who signs his name "J. S. Smith" on the hotel register?
 Blinks—Oh, he's the senior professor of Latin at Harvard college.
 Winks—And who is this man who signs himself "Professor Napoleon Quintus Curtius Jenks?"
 Blinks—Oh, he's a New York chiropondist.—Somerville Journal.

Life's Problem Solved.
 Tired Tim—Wot's that you say? Lookin' fer work?
 Wayfaring William—Yep, I ain't no tramp. I work on farms. But I never stay in one situation more'n a week.
 "Why not?"
 "Well, by that time the folks generally stops treatin' me as company, and wants me to work."—N. Y. Weekly.

Almost Anywhere Would Do.
 Mrs. Twickenham—I'm so glad you and your wife have dropped in.
 Dimpleton—Yes; my wife has been in the house for two days, and I told her she must get out—she must go somewhere. That's the point. I told her it didn't make much difference where.—Brooklyn Life.

A Kindly Suggestion.
 Purchaser (angrily)—That cheap suit you sold me a few weeks ago has gone all to pieces.
 Dealer (benevolently)—Mein frient, you dake de advice off an old man vot knows de cloding trade und don't pay a cheap suit next time. Let me show you some high-priced goods.—N. Y. Weekly.

Arizona Society Note.
 Broncho Pete—I've got to go to the dance to-night down at Deadman's Gulch.
 Five-Fingered Jake—What for?
 Broncho Pete—Editor of the Mountain Echo asked me to get him a list of the killed and injured.—Puck.

He Drew the Line.
 Chicago Justice—You are hereby sentenced to thirty days' confinement on a diet of bread and water.
 Drunken Culprit—Be easy on a poor wretch, judge, an' make it hangin'. The bread's all right, but I can't go the water.—Arkansas Traveler.

An Egotist's Plaint.
 De Bussey (moodily)—I know only two men whom I can really call my friends.
 Miss Severe (with quiet interest)—And may I ask the other man's name, Mr. De Bussey?—Life.

DEATH.—A young son of Constable T. J. Benedict died Saturday of diphtheria and two of his children are now down with that fearful disease.

Gov. McCreary spoke at Mt. Vernon yesterday and today will address the good people at Brodhead. To-morrow, 24th he is to speak at Livingston.

THE saw and planing mill of J. L. Johnson, near Kingsville, burned Saturday. It is thought that the mill caught from burning saw dust near by.

JOE WILLMAN, the hustling merchant of Jumbo, has bought of Capt. I. N. Johnson his saw and grist mill and will operate them both near his place of business.

OUR democratic friend, Mr. R. R. Gentry, is raising a family of girls. His wife presented him with another fine young lady Tuesday night. The father, mother and baby are all doing well.

MR. K. L. TANNER has traded his flouring mill at McKinney to J. E. Tomlinson & Co., for their store and some real estate at Somerset. One of Mr. Tanner's sons will likely run the store traded for.

EDITOR CHASER, of the Corbin Enterprise, says that our statement is false with reference to a scarcity of water at Corbin and then virtually admits its truth, except that he says the wells there are still furnishing a full supply of drinking water. But who would drink water out of a typhoid fever breeding well?

THE trustee of the jury fund, Mr. G. L. Penny, is now paying the jurors for the June court, the money having been turned over by the sheriff on the order of the auditor. If there is any trouble about the payment of the fees at this time of the court, the jurors can call at this office and have their claims cashed for a small per cent.

A REPUBLICAN friend suggests that the picture we printed in our last was more like the editor than the republican candidate for county judge. As a matter of fact and to please our friend we will say that it was our picture. Moreover the sketch accompanying it did not say it was a picture of beautiful and accomplished head of the republican party in Lincoln county. Our critic should read with his specs on.

AND still it raineth not. The cry for water goes up from all over the county, many farmers having to haul it for miles to their stock. Mr. Joseph McClary, Sr., tells us that Dix River, from which Danville is to get its supply of water, has ceased to run, it being lower now than in the 27 years he has lived near it. The prospect for rain seems to have passed and no promise is held out for it by the signal service. It is getting very near the time some praying should be done.

SO far as we can gather the tactics of Boss Davison is to let the rest of the republican ticket but himself and the magistrates in the Crab Orchard and Wayneburg districts, go by the board and concentrate all the forces on those three, so that he with his two henchmen if elected could carry things his own way. After this year there will be but four magistrates in the county and those with the county judge will form the fiscal court. Should the three be elected, the republicans will have a majority. Are the democrats ready to turn over the affairs of the county to such an irresponsible set? If not let them show their faith by their works.

GENTLEMEN, see our line of underwear. Severance & Son.

PAY your 1894 taxes at once and save 6 per cent. J. N. Menefee, sheriff.

WATER is extremely scarce in the Wayneburg and Kingsville sections and wells and springs that have heretofore been considered never failing are now dry. Stock water is also hard to find.

THE fiscal court of Bourbon voted Commonwealth's Attorney Smith a supplemental amount of $500 to his salary. Surely the four counties of this district will together give that amount to Commonwealth's Attorney John S. Owale, Jr. The salary of $500 paid by the State is far too small to support a man and family. Besides he deserves every cent he asks.

WHILE we have an abiding faith in the honor of Lincoln county democrats and are hopeful of the best results, the political outlook is not so good as we would like to have it. The democratic ticket will doubtless be elected, but good and strong efforts from now till election day, will be necessary to accomplish it. Let every true democrat pull off his coat and roll up his sleeves and we shall have a glorious victory to record on Nov. 6.

THE Caledonians hardly maintained their reputation as entertainers at their last meeting, but they plead a lack of preparation, which is hardly a good excuse for such occasions. Mr. S. W. Menefee welcomed the audience in an impromptu speech, in which he got a little mixed, but succeeded in getting there all the same. Ashby M. Warren recited in his usually fine manner and Miss Nora Moreland sang a song in her sweetest way and was loudly encored, but the gem of the evening was the solo by Miss Mary Cowen, the accomplished music teacher at the College. Her selection was "Dear Heart," and her fine soprano voice gave it a sweetness rarely heard. She was encored to the echo and responded in another pleasing selection. Miss Ethyl Beazley, who always does well, recited very gracefully, and the debate "Whether it is better to have Loved and Lost than never to have Loved at all" was announced. Messrs. J. L. Beazley and W. H. Shanks spoke for the affirmative and S. W. Menefee and W. S. Barch for the negative. The judges, Dr. J. G. Carpenter, Will Gaines and M. F. Elkin, decided for the affirmative. Editor E. C. Gaines then read the "Whangdoodle," in which some bon mots appeared in a wilderness of hoary chestnuts. The next meeting will be held two weeks later, when the boys promise to be in better shape to discuss the question selected.

THE fickleness of a woman's heart has been very sadly demonstrated to Mr. Ed Powell, of the West End. After paying his debts to Miss Bessie Moore for a long time, he at length secured from her a confession of love and a promise to marry him. The wedding was fixed for today, the attendants selected and friends invited to witness the union of "two souls with but a single thought, two hearts that beat as one." But there is many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip and Mr. Powell, who is an exceedingly nice young man, can console himself with the thought, that he is fortunate in not having been bound to a woman who could play so falsely. Thursday night Miss Moore, who is a niece of Prof. A. A. Nelson, of Centre College, Danville, and makes her home with him, went with several others to spend the evening with Miss Jennie McKinney. Messrs. Bev Batterton and Frank Read were in the party and they took the young lady to the real man of her choice, Mr. Wm. Stodghill, and then with Misses Mary Batterton and Bessie Read went with them to Cincinnati, where in the parlors of the Grand Hotel, they were made husband and wife. Mr. Stodghill is secretary and treasurer, of the Kentucky Stock Farm Publishing Co., and will continue to live in Lexington.

THE Danville Advocate grows hilarious over the alleged shortness of the water supply here and says the bottom of our reservoir is conspicuous for its prominence. Our friend is smarter than he is wise. This has been an exceptionally dry year and yet we have all the water we can use of a very excellent quality. The only trouble is that we have not reservoir capacity sufficient for such a drouth, although there are two of good size. The bottom of the one our funny man saw was that of the one that is being deepened and enlarged. There has been no lack of water for all the purposes in town, including the mills, but Supt. Hayden did ask the railroad company, which was using over 100,000 gallons a day to do with as small a quantity as possible. The company has stopped washing its engines out at Rowland, but still takes water for a dozen or more loco motives. The present dry spell has taught the water company a lesson that it will profit by. There is an inexhaustible supply of pure water from a dozen springs and in future such a season as this will be prepared for. The water here will always be pure and cool. When Danville gets here it will not only be hot in the summer from being in a stand pipe, but it will smell so badly half the year that our Danville friends will have to mix the mean whisky they get from their blind tigers with it to make it at all palatable. We never laugh at our unfortunate friends, however, but we sincerely sympathize with the people of Danville over what they have got to endure.

We commend the perusal of the communication signed "Democrat" on our first page. It will help the weak-backed greatly.

THE Central University Foot-Ball team defeated the Louisville Athletic Club on their own grounds Saturday 28 to 0, but the Centre College team was beaten by the Vanderbilts at Nashville 6 to 0.

MR. JAMES H. CARTER is about completing a handsome residence near his store on Halls Gap. Three springs on his farm are the headwaters of Logans Creek, Buck creek and Green river.

THE following ticket has been selected for trustees of the town of Rowland: Harry Dunn, W. M. Tapp, John W. Flowers, Wm. Bann and Alfred Haley; for police judge, Willis C. Barnett, and marshal, T. D. Martin.

THE so-called democrat who is one for revenue only and goes back on his party because it does not keep him in office, or acts exactly as he wants it, is one of the yellow dog variety, and ought to shun the republican side now and always. Such men are worse than straight out enemies to any cause.

MARSHAL NEWLAND filed yesterday, too late for publication in this issue, notice of sale for taxes of the lands of Mrs. M. J. Miller and J. S. Murphy lying in town. He also advertises property of Messrs. D. W. Vandever, W. P. Tate, H. S. Withers, J. P. Bailey, S. J. Embry, J. M. McRoberts, A. D. Root, S. H. Baughman, Mrs. Lou Shanks and Mrs. Baker for town taxes on lands inside of town limits.

CIRCUIT COURT.—Promptly at 9:30 yesterday the deep sounding tones of the court-house bell announced that the "big court" was about to begin and in a few minutes Deputy Sheriff Sam Menefee with great dignity said: "Hear ye, hear ye, the circuit court of the 13th judicial district of the State of Kentucky sitting for and within the county of Lincoln is now open for the transaction of business, the Hon. M. C. Saufley, judge presiding." The grand jurors were then sworn in as follows: C. A. Redd, L. C. Carpenter, T. M. Holmes, J. M. White, G. B. Barnett, T. W. Napier, Frank Rigney, M. N. De Pauw, L. K. Wells, Dan Holman, L. M. Lasley and G. W. Evans. At the request of the judge County Attorney Joseph B. Paxton delivered the charge, which he did in a full and comprehensive manner. L. M. Lasley was appointed foreman and then the petit jurors were announced as follows: W. M. Duddler, B. G. Gover, Thos. Simpson, J. E. Wright, Frank Cordier, Wm. Holman, Jerry Briscoe, A. M. Frye, W. M. Lackey, Jess Huston, J. M. Sibold, J. T. Chadwick, Reuben Curtis, W. F. Abrahams, Josiah Bishop, A. B. McKinney, David Scott, A. M. Pence, Ed Miller, John Tucker, J. R. Hale, F. M. Warg, Cicero Reynolds, W. H. Duddler.

On the call of the docket a number of cases were continued. James Mayfield, for carrying concealed weapons, has left the country and the case was dismissed, as were the cases against Sam Becker for the same offense and James Vanhook for breach of the peace.

A jury in the case of Alonzo Baker was sworn and a good case was being made out against him for carrying concealed weapons, when it was discovered that by an inexcusable oversight the jurors had not been asked if they were on the grand jury that indicted him. Three of them were, so Mr. Baker went free.

Idle Austin, gaming, will be tried Wednesday, if the order for the arrest of witnesses can be served. Tinsley Mereshon, for carrying concealed weapons, plead former conviction for the offense in which the pistol was drawn and he was discharged. Jim Owale, for running into Squire E. B. Caldwell, Jr.'s wagon, was acquitted, the squire not wishing to prosecute him. Chas. Wakefield, malicious wounding, was not present, so his bond was declared forfeited and order of arrest issued. H. H. Wade, for selling liquor to minor, was acquitted and Joseph Coffey in one case and Thos. Dalton in two for the same offense, were fined respectively $50 and $100.

In the afternoon the judgments against Joe Coffey and Thomas Dalton, which had been entered by default of their attorney to answer, he being at the time out of the court room, were set aside and on the trial of the cases they were both acquitted.

Curtis Gover, selling whisky to inebriate, acquitted. P. W. Green was acquitted in two cases for selling minor liquor. J. W. James dismissed in one case for selling liquor to inebriate and other five cases for selling unlawfully held up to await decision of court of appeals. L. & N. R. R., for trespass, two cases set for Oct. 29. Jim Wickersham, furnishing liquor on election day, dismissed at his costs.

The five cases against Wm. and Mack Moore for breach of the peace were set for next Thursday. Winfield Ware and Frank Hogue will have a hearing on Monday, next.

The rostrum is nicely carpeted and there is an air of neatness not usually noticeable. The judge announced that no one but the officers of the court, the lawyers, the jurors and others having business within the bar would be permitted there. Sam Owens says the judge also said he would enter a fine of $5 against any man who dared exhortate on that carpet, but we did not hear it. He ought to say it, however, if he didn't and stick to it too.

QUESTION AND ANSWER.

When a Defective Foal Is Born, Who Pays the Damages?

Question.—I bred my mare to a standard bred horse. When the colt was foaled, it was an imperfect one and would have died had I not doctored it. Will I have to pay for it, or can I collect damages of the owner for losing the use of the mare?

Answer.—There is no general rule of law or custom which will cover such cases, but each one depends for answer upon its own state of facts. The service is made either with or without a guarantee. If without a guarantee, then, to avoid payment of the service, it would have to be shown conclusively that the imperfect colt was due wholly to the stallion. If it could be shown that the stallion had been getting just such imperfect colts, and that frequently, and that the owner knew of this fault, but concealed the fact from the owner of the mare, then the chances would be in favor of recovering damages from the stallion for loss of the use of the mare. It would be an extreme case when this could be done, however.

Ordinarily, without special contract, the owner of the mare would have to pay the service fee. The "problem of life" is one of the apparently unsolvable mysteries—at least it is unsolved—and if in the mating the stallion has begotten a foal that is as much as he is required to do. The strength, condition and general health of the foal depend almost wholly on the care given the mare during the next 10 or 11 months, and with this the stallion has nothing to do. He simply says: "My stallion is potent. The mare is brought. The stallion proves his owner's statements, and the fee is due."

On the other hand, many stallions take the view that they can gain more friends for their horse by losing the service where it does not result in actual profit to the mare owners. In such cases the guarantee is made that "the colt shall stand and suck or no charge for service." This rule is very frequently adopted in farming communities, and in effect the stallion guarantees the potency of his horse, the efficiency of his service, the treatment by the owner during the pregnancy of the mare and the skill of the midwife. He draws the line only at the ill of colthood, but up to the time the foal stands and sucks the risk is the stallion's. Even in a case of this kind it is no more than the duty of the owner of the mare to do all he can to get the foal fairly started on its life journey. If it is weakly, it is more than probable that it is the result of some improper treatment the mare has received at his hands, and if a little doctoring (the less the better usually) and good nursing will put the foal on its feet he should attend to it and pay the fee.

If the foal is actually deformed or is of such a sickly disposition as to be practically valueless, and if the mare has produced strong foals by other horses, then a plain, fair, straightforward discussion of the matter with the stallion will in nine out of ten cases result in a mutually satisfactory adjustment. If not, the cheapest plan is to pay the bill and then take the mares and the neighbors' mares to another stallion the next season. Another plan is a lawsuit. A calf worth $3 has been to the Iowa supreme court three times, costing the litigants over $8,000. Two real good fighters could make a foal cost more than that.—Breeder's Gazette.

What "Thoroughbred" Means.

In England the word "thoroughbred" is applied only to a race horse. In this country it is used indiscriminately of all animals of pure breed. Unless one bears in mind the English usage, however, the term "thoroughbred" will be a little confusing. It certainly would be so to an Englishman as we use it.

Full blood and pure blood mean in America the same as thoroughbred. Probably the usage here will gradually conform to that of Great Britain. A crossbred animal is the product of a pure blood sire of one breed and a pure blood dam of another. A grade is an animal partly line blooded, partly of common stock.—Exchange.

Live Stock Points.

There is a feeling against white hogs in the south because there they are found in some localities to be more liable to skin disease than black hogs are.

The southern horse trade has been fairly good this summer, which is more than can be said of the northern one.

An English breeder has ordered from America five stallions and 50 brood mares, trotting stock. The stallions must have a record above 2:25. These trotters are to be crossed on hackney stock, the mares with hackney stallions, the sires with hackney mares. The breeder wishes to see which will prove the best cross. He expects in any case to produce an improved breed of horses. But American breeders ought to make that kind of a cross themselves in the native home of the trotter.

The Poland-China is the most widespread breed of hogs in the south. Following closely after it is the lively Berkshire, and next the Essex, and the Duroc-Jersey. The Duroc-Jerseys are growing rapidly in popularity because of their quiet disposition and their excellent adaptability to grazing for their living.

At the World's fair the saddle mare Lou Chief was first prize winner in her class. Since the fair she has been sold to Mr. J. M. Garrett of Woodford county, Ky., for $1,800. This is the highest price ever paid for a saddle mare even in Kentucky.

The duty plain before horse breeders is to improve their stock. The same plain duty is before beef raisers and dairymen for the matter of that. Only by such improvement, and decided improvement, will they be able to hold their own. The day of inferior stock in any line is over in America.

Western beef herds have been in phenomenally good condition this summer.

Seeking a Separation.

"Do you give gas here?" asked a wild-looking man who rushed into a dentist's office on Clark street yesterday morning.

"We do," replied the dentist.

"Does it put a fellow to sleep?"

"It does."

"Sound asleep, so you can't wake him up?"

"Yes."

"You could break his jaw or gouge out his eye and he wouldn't feel it?"

"He would know nothing of it."

"How long does it make him stay asleep?"

"The physical insensibility produced by inhaling the gas lasts a minute or probably a little less."

"I guess that's long enough. Got it all ready for a fellow to take?"

"Yes. Take a seat in this chair and show me your tooth."

"Tooth nothing!" said the excited caller, beginning rapidly to remove his coat and vest. "I want you to pull a porous plaster off my back."—Chicago Tribune.

Proof Positive.

"You don't tell me that bright, pretty Mrs. — has been placed in a private asylum!"

"Yes; but they held back from taking that step until last week, when the evidence of her insanity became too marked to admit of doubt."

"What did she do?"

"Nothing. But she told her husband that she thought their baby was one of the ugliest, most stupid infants she had ever seen."—Brooklyn Life.

Well Known.

"I want you to publish these poems in book form," said a seedy-looking man to a New York publisher.

Publisher—I'll look over them, but I cannot promise to bring them out unless you have a well-known name.

Poet—That's all right. My name is known wherever the English language is spoken.

"Ah, indeed! What is your name?"

"John Smith."—White Plains Weekly.

A Modified Statement.

Little Girl—You study music, don't you?

Miss Screecher—Yes, I am still studying.

"Uncle George said he heard your voice as he passed your house last evening."

"Let me—see. I really don't believe I did any singing last evening."

"Oh, he didn't say you did sing. He only said you were trying to."—Good News.

And So They Were Married.

Tom Jynne—So Jamison has been ensnared at last?

Rocquand Righe—Yes; he always was a practical fellow. He could have had any one of a dozen heiresses, but he passed them all by and married a seamstress.

Tom Jynne—And how has their married life turned out?

Rocquand Righe—Oh, sew, sew.—N. Y. World.

She Chose Her Own Language.

In an agony of suspense he knelt at her feet.

"Say yes," he pleaded, "only say yes."

She turned away with a gesture of impatience.

"I must insist," she replied, firmly, "upon being allowed full latitude as to phraseology and choice of words."—Town Topics.

A Practical Consideration.

"What are we to do with the anarchists?" asks the man who studies political economy.

"Why, when they break the law we can put them in the penitentiary."

"Yes, we can do that. But I hate like everything to demoralize the penitentiary."—Washington Star.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF STANFORD, KY.

Capital Stock.....$200,000
Surplus.....21,300

Attention of the public is invited to the fact that this is the only National Bank in Stanford Under the provisions of the National Bank Act depositors are secured not only by the capital stock, but by the stockholders' liability for an amount equal to the stock, so that depositors of this institution are secured by a fund of $200,000. Five percent statements of the condition of the bank are made each year to the United States government and its assets are examined at stated times by government agents, thus securing additional and perfect safety to depositors.

This institution, originally established as the Deposit Bank of Stanford in 1858, then re-organized as the National Bank of Stanford in 1865 and again re-organized as the First National Bank of Stanford in 1882, has had practically an uninterrupted existence of 37 years. It is better supplied now with facilities for transacting business promptly and liberally than ever before in its long and honorable career. Accounts of corporations, fiduciaries, firms and individuals respectfully solicited.

There is no medicine so often needed in every home and so admirably adapted to the purpose for which it is intended, as Chamberlain's Pain Expeller. Hardly a week passes but what some member of the family has need of it. A toothache or headache may be cured by it. A touch of rheumatism or neuralgia, quieted. The severe pain of a burn or scald promptly relieved and the sore healed in much less time than when medicine has to be sent for. A sprain may be promptly treated before inflammation sets in, which insures cure in about one-third the time otherwise required. Cuts and bruises should receive immediate treatment before the parts become swollen, which can only be done when Pain Expeller is kept at hand. A sore throat may be cured before it becomes serious. A troublesome corn may be removed by applying it twice a day for a week or two. A lame back may be cured and several days of valuable time saved or a pain in the side or chest relieved without paying a doctor bill. Procure a cent bottle at once and you will never regret it.
